UMC celebrates Maroon & Gold Fridays

By Krista Lemos on Monday, October 3, 2005

The University of Minnesota Crookston (UMC) announced the winner of the first Maroon & Gold Fridays' office party for September. The winner of a $50.00 gift certificate from the Northland Inn is The Hair Gallery (T Durbin, Tiffany Fee, Deb Engebretson).

“We have over 30 community and campus offices and departments participating in this special centennial year event”, said Kylene Odegaard Alumni Association member. Maroon and Gold Fridays encourages both the UMC community and surrounding communities to wear the school colors to show pride and spirit. Each month one special winner receives an office party for their participation in the event.

This Maroon & Gold Friday proclamation was made by Crookston's mayor, Don Osborne, on September 7 and will last throughout the centennial celebration. To learn more about Maroon & Gold Fridays and you can participate, please visit UMC's New website.
